

Tamar Stone

The Vital System, "Good Sense", "Little Beauty"

© 2000

Description List

(note: see attached text sheet)

1. Front Cover: (H) 4", (W) 4"
 2. Inside Front Cover: Front title page (each individual folded page):(H) 3 1/4", (W) 3"
 3. Inside Front/Back pages: (H) 4" x (W) 27" total length
-

Cover:

THE VITAL SYSTEM

“Good Sense”

“Little Beauty”

Inside:

*The lines of this Corset
closely follow the lines
of the natural figure*

Stomach

Will

The “Good Sense”
waist,
best for health,
economy and
beauty...

Large Intestines

hold

*The hygienic
principle of support
is embodied...
each part
equally distributes
the strain of
the garment*

Small Intestines

the

The “Universal Waist”
is the
most comfortable
and
best fitting
waist
in the market...

Kidney

internal

Other Side:

*All that can
be desired
in a corset,
regardless of price,
is embodied
in this model.*

Spleen

organs

Unequaled for
neatness,
the right amount
of firmness,
the waist
retains it's shape
until worn out.

Liver

in their

Great support
is gained
by wearing.

Fits so well
that the utmost
grace of figure
is obtained

Lungs

“proper”

*...comfortable
for ladies of
fine contour
or delicate constitution...*

Heart
position.

Back side/last page of “inside”

A Strained & Structured Production

Tamar Stone
© 2000

sewn organ text at bottom of pages:

Will hold the internal organs in their “proper” position.